At the AUMA conference September 23 to 27 in Edmonton, I attended a RMRF Legal presentation on Councillor code of conduct, social media, and defamation. We have made some changes to our social media sites due to the legal advice received.

I also toured the Cloverdale Community Centre to review the clean energy options they implemented in their renovations.

Other sessions I attended included a presentation by Senator Paula Simons on her role in the passing of the pipeline bill and other legislations affecting the province; Multigenerational workplaces; Municipal regionalization; Dialogue sessions with a variety of Ministers; Resolution sessions; and the meeting with the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

We entered in to a 5-year agreement to host the Can-Net base station at the DPW shop for $1,000/year, which will cover the bill for our Wi-Fi service at the Public Works shop.
