Subject: EOEP gearing up to provide council orientation

Dear Mayors, Councillors and CAOs

Many municipalities and CAO's are starting to plan council orientation. We wanted to be sure to let you know that the Elected Officials Education Program \(EOEP\) will deliver Munis 101: the Essential of Municipal Governance following the 2021 municipal elections to help fulfil the Municipal Government Act requirement to provide orientation to councils within 90 days after they are sworn in.

Over 1,000 elected officials and senior administrators attended Munis following the 2017 elections. Based on the success of this offering, EOEP is refreshing the course material to ensure it is up to date and engaging in both virtual and in-person sessions. We are also working with Municipal Affairs to ensure the latest changes to the Municipal Government Act are reflected.

The first course will be offered virtually in early September for Summer Villages. Evening and daytime options will be made available over a series of interactive sessions.

Following the October 18 elections, EOEP will offer a combination of virtual and in-person sessions. As public health measures allow, we are planning to offer in-person sessions in conjunction with AUMA and RMA's conventions in November, as well as regional sessions. We plan to release a schedule by the end of June.

Updates on delivery will be provided as details are ironed out.

In the meantime, we encourage elected officials to take advantage of current offerings, including Council's Role in Service Delivery in March and Council's Role in Strategic Planning in offered in April.

Thank you!
