Mighty Peace Tourism Member, Board and Staff Code of Conduct

1. We, the Members of the Mighty Peace Tourism accept our individual and collective duty to participate unselfishly.
2. We commit to the objectives of this organization by the following:
3. Serve by making decisions that best suit the interests of Mighty Peace Tourism and the region it serves. We may encourage new memberships.
4. Prepare and participate in order to add value to the Mighty Peace Tourism at all meetings and functions. Ad Hoc duties will be done in a timely manner to respect each other's time and commitment.
5. Honor each other during and outside of meetings, appreciating the value and diversity that each other's experience and perspectives bring to our organization.
6. Speak positively of Mighty Peace Tourism so that our Board, staff, and the public receive a clear, consistent, honest message that honors our organization.
7. Respect all information learned during our participation as members and keep necessary information confidential. Decisions affecting staff or officials will be made by the board and communicated as a united front.
8. Avoid conflict of interest by informing the Board whenever there is perceived conflict.
9. Uphold objectives by reading and understanding Mighty Peace Tourism's Bylaws. Be well informed and support the plans set by the Board. Be available, prompt, and professional when committing to a function. Do your part to uphold the objectives of Mighty Peace Tourism.
10. Seek excellence by investing in personal and organizational development and growth. Members will conduct themselves in an ethical and diplomatic manner to display decorum within the organization.
